

Reading Civic Society Annual Luncheon on Saturday, 7 March 2020 at Pepe Sale

A quiz in which cheating is positively encouraged (Google, phone a friend etc) set by Chris Widdows (E&OE)
No prizes are awarded except that of approbation from fellow RCS members

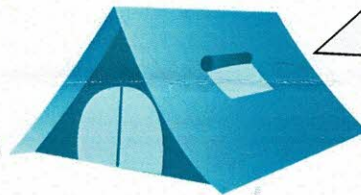

Q1: St Mary's Church House in Chain Street—what is its current use?

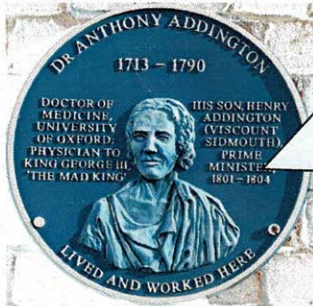

Q2: These two emblems adorn which memorial erected by Dr Jameson Hurry in 1909?

Q3: What two numbers have been blanked out?

Q4: In which iconic building might you see "that little tent of blue" ?

Q5: In which street can you see this plaque to Anthony Addington, father of Henry Addington, Prime Minister 1801-04?

Q6: The Spanish Civil War memorial was rededicated in the Forbury Gardens on 10 May 2015 but where was it located before this?

Q7: This is one of Reading's greatest benefactors. Who was he?

Q8: This scene from The Bayeux Tapestry depicts a workman about to place the weathercock on which abbey, consecrated in 1065?

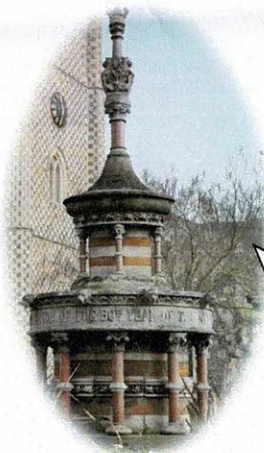

Q9 : Which Welsh mezzo-soprano appeared on Songs of Praise earlier this year visiting Reading Abbey?

Q10: Which Reading born archbishop once preached from this pulpit in 1623 when it stood originally in St Andrew's Church, Sonning? In 1886 it was restored and placed in St George's Church, Tilehurst.

Q12: This plaque in the Chapter House of Reading Abbey is in memory of the first abbot of Reading. Who was he?

Q11: What great event does this fountain in St Mary's Butts celebrate?