

READING CIVIC SOCIETY

CHURCHES TOUR

Sunday, 30 September 2018

In the tradition of our churches tours, Reading Civic Society will visit three churches at Great Shefford, Aldworth and Bucklebury, departing at 12.30 p.m. by Horseman’s comfortable 33-seater coach. The coach will park as near to each church as possible. As usual the Society will make a small donation to each of the three churches.

We will again have the services of a guide, David Peacock, a local journalist, lecturer and writer.

There are toilets at Aldworth and Bucklebury. After the first church, we will be stopping for tea at 2.30 p.m. at Camp Hopson in Newbury.

Depart 12.30 p.m. from Horseman’s Bus Stop ND at the north side of the railway station.
Arrive 1.15 p.m. at St Mary’s Church, Great Shefford (stay 45 mins.)
Depart 2.00 p.m.
Arrive 2.30 p.m. at Angelica’s at Camp Hopson for tea (1 hour). See overleaf for details.
After tea and a comfort stop we will rejoin the coach for the next church visit.
